Seegman stands out for its agile management, the multi-jurisdictional legal education of its fully bilingual team, and its ability to serve their clients in Spain, Portugal and other third countries.

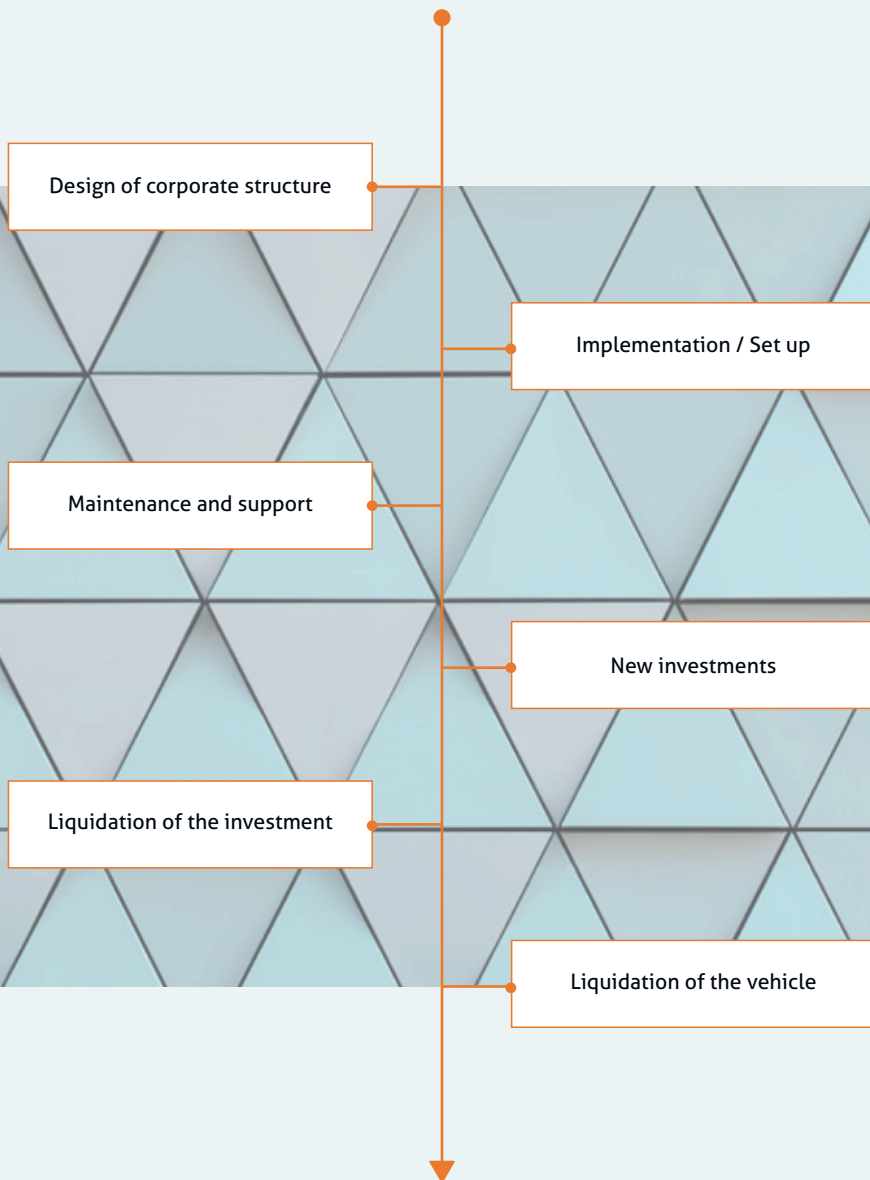

Our clients are mainly foreign investors seeking comprehensive legal advice in the development of their business projects. We deal with sophisticated investors, with high standards, with whom we establish long-term relationships, based on quality work and the building of trusting relationships, as a consequence of an understanding of the nature of our clients' business.

We support Iberian entrepreneurs in their outbound operations, mainly in Latam.

We have extensive experience in the restructuring and liquidation of companies and support in mid-market transactions. Seegman is able to provide its services in coordination with other legal or investment services firms or working directly with our clients' in-house advisors and consultants, at the pace required by each transaction.

Our experience allows us to provide services to our clients either directly, through their legal advisors or even as part of a multidisciplinary advisors team.

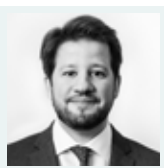

We provide legal support to our clients in the different stages of the project.

Seegman has a team with professional experience in Europe and Latin America and a strong network of contacts with partner firms and independent professionals, and referrers in key jurisdictions for our clients.

We are a business-oriented team committed to excellence.
